

Hello from all at Taylormade Fasteners,

You may have heard about the new General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR"), that comes into effect May 25, 2018. Taylormade Fasteners is committed to safeguarding & managing your details in full support of the E.U data law.

Section 1. What we hold and whom has access

We are using this statement as a means to inform you that we do hold personal data (that we deem necessary as explained in Section 2. Why we hold data and for how long) in the form of :

- email addresses,
- bank information,
- business address,
- VAT Number,
- Company Registration Number,
- Credit Search

which are stored on our company's IT systems and hard copies are in a locked cabinet. The only authorised person to access that information is the Data Protection officer.

Section 2. Why we hold data and for how long

The data that we keep is necessary for us to provide our ongoing services and to fulfil our contractual obligations we have with you and your company. This data we hold on your company is held indefinitely. Any details will be held and used solely for business/trading related activities. We would like to maintain our communication with you regarding our updates / marketing or business-related emails. Please note we have made the appropriate changes to our Privacy policy to fall in line with these regulations. We presume therefore that you accept us holding this data and information and therefore no further action is necessary or required

Section 3. Right to access your data

Under GDPR, you have the right to obtain a copy of the personal information that we hold about you upon request. If you believe that the information we hold is incorrect or missing various aspects, this will be rectified immediately when correct details are received.
